HELLO TO A DUKE

HOMER CROY'S NOVEL WAY OF INTRODUCING HIMSELF.

WOULD MEET DUCHESS

A Cordial Invitation to the Duke and Duchess to Drop in When Crossing, "Make Themselves at Home."

According to a dispatch from London, England, Homer Croy, 53 Washington square, New York, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Croy, living near Maryville, describing himself as "head of the American house of Croy," has requested a local newspaper man to forward the following letter of congratulation to the Duke of Croy on the latter's forthcoming marriage to Miss Nancy Leishman, daughter of the American ambassador to Berlin. The letter, which is reproduced with the writer's permission, reads:

"Your Grace: It is with pleasure I have read in the papers about your marriage to Miss Nancy Lieshman, and I am glad to congratulate you by reason of the fact that I share with you the name of Croy. You probably did not know this before, and I am glad to be the first to impart the information to you. It is such an unusual name that I feel we must be related.

"I have never had the pleasure of meeting you, but hope to at a time not far distant. I particularly want to meet you as you are the only duke to whom I am related. I new saw a duke in all my life, but I know I should like you. I don't know what dukes talk about, but if you are interested in base ball I know it would not be long until we felt as if we had known each other for years.

"If you bring your wife to America, where she was born and brought up, I hope you will drop in to see me. I will borrow a couple of extra chairs from the town hall and we three will have a jolly party. I know the duchess will like to meet her new relatives. Is she fond of picture shows? If she is, and likes fish and animals, we will have a pleasant time, for our aquarium and the Bronx zoo are the best in America.

You should do all you can to entertain your new bride, and give her an interesting honeymoon. I should like to show her all the points of interest around New York, including Ellis island and Jumel mansions, so that in after years the duchess can look back to the bridal trip with pleasure and satisfaction.

"It is a distinct pleasure to me to know we bear the same name. You will find the American Croys all congenial, with the best stereoscopes in our homes that money can buy.

Does the duchess play? We shall have our organ fixed up in case she is musically inclined. Does she like to go out in society? I hope so, as we were intending to have several of our friends in. However if your wife prefers reading and quiet, she can always find "Paradise Lost" and "Romola" on the center table.

"In return it would be a pleasure for me to call on you when I come to Germany. Travel is so broadening, and as soon as I can save money enough for the passage I shall come to your country. I don't want you to put yourself out, as I hate to feel the responsibility. Give me a room on the top floor with running water, tell me what time to come down to breakfast and worry no more about me.

"Newspaper dispatches do not give your first name. They simply call you the Duke of Croy. Will it be all right, after we get better acquainted, if I just call you "Duke?" I doubt what to wear when we go to the opera in your city. I hate to suggest it, but the night we go couldn't you arrange for orchestra seats instead of a box. I'm afraid my black suit will get all wrinkled up on the way over, but if you prefer a box, all right with me.

"Assuring you I'm highly pleased to make your acquaintance and trusting you will remember me to your father and mother, I am your friend and well wisher,

"HOMER CROY."

The letter was duly posted in care of the American embassy, Berlin. Mrs. Leishman and Miss Nancy Leishman, who paid a flying visit to Berlin for the wedding of the kaiser's daughter, have new returned to Paris, where they are understood to be completing arrangements for their daughter's wedding, which will take place some time during the next few months.

Taken Home Monday.

Donald Goforth, who was operated on ten days ago at St. Francis hospital for appendicitis, was able to be removed to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Goforth, on Monday noon.

Miss Alberta Hahn and Miss Ruth Foster went to St. Joseph Monday morning to spend a few weeks with their aunt, Mrs. A. D. Simmons.

CLEAN-UP IN PROGRESS.

Weeds and Trash Are Fading Away Fast Today in the City Wagons.

Clean up day began in earnest this morning. All over town weeds were being cut, trash collected, and the wagons were soon busy hauling the refuse to the dump piles. The alley from Second street to Fourth west of Main was almost entirely clean by the time business men got down town. The other alleys were slower in getting cleaned, and some of them are still untouched. They should be cleaned yet this afternoon if the dirt is to be hauled away by the city wagons

Mayor Robey is going to have the streets swept again Tuesday night and then washed with the fire hose. Some complaint has been made against the sweeping of the streets so early in the evening. The sweeper raises a great dust, which is very annoying to the people on the streets. It even bothers in the stores which are still open. If it is not possible to begin the sweeping later, after 11 p. m., as it used to be done, it would be well to build a frame on the machine from which a canvas could be hung in a manner to enclose the broom. Such arrangement is used in many places, and is very effective in keeping down the dust.

ABOUT 1,200 PEOPLE THERE.

Twelfth Annual Basket Meeting at Workman Chapel Brought Out a Big Crowd.

The annual meetings at Workman Union chapel, fifteen miles northwest of Maryville, are not growing old or common with the people, as the crowd of about 1,200 people at Sunday's meeting attests.

People came from every direction in every kind of conveyance, bringing baskets filled with the best things in the land to eat. There were thirty automobiles lined up at the chapel at the dinner hour.

Rev. J. A. Carmichael, living east of Maryville, who has never missed an annual meeting at the chapel, preached at 11 o'clock to a big crowd, and in the afternoon Rev. Dr. J. T. Hanna of Bolckow preached at 2:30.

A choir composed of Rev. and Mrs. Carmichael, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Peery, Andrew King and Mrs. J. T. Hanna, with Mr. Clyde Hanna at the organ, led the singing.

HOUSE WAS BROKEN INTO.

Former Sheriff Tilson's Residence Entered Some Time Sunday and Many Articles Taken.

While former Sheriff Tilson and his family were out of the city Sunday in their automobile a party or parties gained entrance to his residence, on North Market street by breaking the lock on the kitchen door. A 38 Smith & Wesson gun was taken, and also many other articles. Two gold watches were laying on a dresser in a room near where the robber or robbers were, but for some reason or other they were not taken. There are no clues.

NORMAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Rev. J. D. Randolph of the Buchanan Street Methodist church led the devotional exercises in the assembly this morning. After the exercises Rev. Randolph addressed the students for a few moments. His talk was full of wit and humor, which was enjoyed very much.

The enrollment is increasing slowly but steadily, and it is thought that it will reach the 500 mark by this evening.

This evening at the First Christian church a reception and entertainment will be given to the Normal students. A good attedance is expected.

Visited at Pickering.

Miss Edith Neal, who is attending the Normal, spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Neal, near Pickering. Mrs. J. S. Lincoln accompanied her home and was her guest. Mrs. G. W. Smith of Barnard, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neal, and her daughter, Mildred, were also guests at the Neal home, returning home Monday evening.

WILL BE BIG WEEK

THREE BIG CONVENTIONS TO BE HELD IN MARYVILLE.

SUNDAY SCHOOL FIRST

Following That Come Epworth League Convention and Christian Endeavor Meeting—Also White Way.

This week is to be a big one for Maryville. In addition to the white way celebration on Wednesday, there will be three conventions here, and it is expected that they will be largely attended.

The conventions are the county Sunday school convention, the district Epworth League convention of the M. E. church, South, and the second district of Missouri Christian Endeavor Union.

The Sunday school convention will meet Tuesday and Wednesday at the First M. E. church. The opening session will be Tuesday afternoon. It is expected that there will be 200 delegates here for this meeting, as each Sunday school in the county is entitled to three delegates and they are all coming, as the purpese of the meeting is to organize a county association to stimulate more interest in Sunday school work.

On Tuesday afternoon, besides the introductory work of the convention, three subjects will be discussed. S. L. Williams of Liberty, Mo., state field secretary of the state Sunday School association, will talk on the purpose of a county association and what it can do for the Sunday schools of the county. Then the social activities of the Sunday schools will be discussed. Rev. S. D. Harkness of the Presbyterian church will speak of the Sunday school base ball league. Class socials will be talked of by Mrs. E. L. Harrington. An address is to be given by Fred Ashe of Tarkio. At the evening's session Mrs. G. P. Beattie of Kansas City, the wife of the pastor of the Westport Presbyterian church of that city, will talk on the subject "The Superintendent in Action." Mr. Williams will also make an address on "It's a Man Job." Mrs. F. P. Robinson and Rev. Gilbert S. Cox will give solos at this session.

The League Convention.

Reports from the different leagues over the district give promise of large attendance at the Epworth League conference of the M. E. church, South, to be held here in the Buchanan Street Methodist church at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, following the meeting of the county Sunday school convention. About seventy delegates are expected. St. Joseph is going to send a large delegation, and a heavy attendence from the smaller nearby towns is looked for. There are twenty-one leagues in this district, more than half of which have been heard from. Most of the delegates will be here by noon Wednesday.

Among the principal address will be the address of welcome by Dr. R. E. Hamilton of this city and the address of President Ira Richardson, which will be given on the evening of the 18th.

The Endeavor Meeting.

The second district Endeavor Union of Missouri will open its meeting on Friday evening and continue in session until Sunday evening. This meeting is expected to be attended by 200 delegates or more.

"THE JOY OF JESUS."

Rev. C. J. Miller Preaches Interesting Sermon Sunday Morning at Christian Church.

A good sized audience attended the morning service at the Christian church yesterday and listened with interest to Rev. Miller, when he took for his subject "The Joy of Jesus." Text, John 15:11—"These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, and that your joy might be full." Rev. Miller said in part:

"The words of my text mark the conclusion of the great parable of the vine and the branches. It is a gathering up in one sentence all the preceding verses in the chapter. It echoes as the vibration of some great bell, after the stroke has ceased. It sounds a note that must not be left out if we would declare the whole message of the Christ—the note of joy.

"Truth is a message of joy.

"The severed branch cannot bear fruit—it must abide in the vine. If we bear fruit we must abide in His love, but we cannot abide in His love if we do not obey him.

"At Gethsemane: Was not this a strange utterance for Him at this time—a strange time to talk of joy? In half an hour the circle would be broken, yet from His great heart radiated a message of joy to His disciples.

"He abode in the Father, and could not be other than a joyful man.

"How dark the day when Israel worshiped idols! The promised joy of the deliverer put a new color into His message. He tinged even His darkest story with the joy note.

"Joy is the basis of His kingdom.

"We may not be able to help others with our influence and money, but we can help with our sympathy, good will and kind words. Joy, then, is often brought to the hearts of those we minister to.

"Victor Hugo said: 'There is in this world no function more important than that of being charming, to shed joy around, to radiate happiness, to cast light up dark days. Is not this to render service?'"

AVIATOR IS HERE

M'MILLEN ALL READY FOR HIS FLIGHT WEDNESDAY.

START FROM NORMAL

Weather Permitting One Flight to Be Made in the Morning and One in the Afternoon.

Ralph E. McMillen arrived in Maryville Sunday night with his two helpers. In looking over the different grounds Monday morning McMillen chose the Normal grounds as the place of the flight, and the work of setting up the biplane began at once. The flights will be made from the athletic field or from the stretch of ground leading to the building, depending on the direction of the wind. One flight will be made at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The time of the other flight has not been determined. If the weather permits this flight will probably be at 10 a. m., although McMillen says that that is the worst time of day to make a flight. The aeroplane will be guarded night and day until the time of the flights, and, barring bad weather, Maryville will have her two flights as scheduled for the white way celebration Wednesday, June 18.

McMillen is a small man, weighing only 122 pounds. Talking to the reporters this morning, he said that this was an advantage to him. With the same kind of a machine and under the same conditions, he can get a faster start, fly higher and stay up longer than the heavier men. He is one of the few light men in the business. The majority of aviators weigh from 160 to 180 pounds.

"I began in the automobile business, working my way up from the mechanical department to the racing business," said Mr. McMillen. "Then the flying 'bug' struck me, and I made my first flight in my home town of Perry, Ia., May 13, 1912. I went up early in the day and had a successful flight. That afternoon I decided I would fly to a neighboring town about twenty miles away to visit a former girl friend of mine. That flight and the return trip were both successful, but not satisfied with what I had done, I had to go up again after supper. I took a passenger along with me, a steeple-jack. He was all right until we started to come down, when he lost his nerve. He grabbed me by the shoulders, and, as I depended on shifting my shoulders and body to keep the machine balanced, I lost control of it and we fell. We were about 100 feet in the air at the time of the fall. Both of my legs were broken in two places above the knees, my arms, collar bone, one hand, and several ribs, in all twelve bones, were broken. The steeple-jack received some severe cuts on his head and face, but escaped other injuries, as he was free from the engine, which had falen on me. Since then I have had no love for passengers, and have never taken another one with me."

Mr. McMillen received another slight injury in his recent flights in Kansas City. It was not due to a fall, however, but to the fact that he landed in a plowed field, and the sudden stop of the machine threw him out ahead of it, as if he had been bucked from a horse.

The length of the flights here will be fifteen or twenty minutes, the usual time for such flights. Mr. McMillen has remained in the air for more than an hour, and he carries enough gasoline to run the engine an hour and a half. The highest altitude which Mr. McMillen has ever reached is 8,000 feet. It took him thirty-two minutes, ascending in spirals to gain that height. He was not dressed for the cold and had to descend.

Mr. McMillen does not know how many times he has made flights, but he has made twenty-seven flights this year. He is keeping a record of these flights, the height, distance, time, place, condition of weather, etc., for his own reference and the use of any other aviators who may wish for the information they contain.

LET US BE CARETAKERS.

A man—not a gentleman, but a man—walked into the postoffice the other day, took a cigar out of his mouth, blew a great ring of smoke, spit on the floor, and read this notice:

No smoking in the lobby.

No spitting on the floor.

No scratching matches on wall or furniture.

No loafing.

No posting of bills.

A few arrests at the start would stop such violations in a very short time.

Seventy-five thousand dollars! That is the amount which the government has already put into the new federal building, and we are expecting more. The government gave us the building to use and TAKE CARE OF. We should not be careful to keep this building clean and in good condition just because it cost seventy-five or one hundred thousand dollars. We should be just as careful as if it had cost no more than two or three thousand dollars. But we should not take care of it simply because it represents a large sum of money. Rather, we should take care of it because we have enough pride to keep well all things that belong to us, and our individual love of the clean and beautiful should make us want to keep this postoffice spotless. And——

Chicago is Close Second, With but Two Degrees Below.

Washington, June 16.—Practically the entire country sweltered under the first real hot wave of the season and the weather bureau experts held out no hope for cooler weather within the next forty-eight hours.

Omaha, Neb., and St. Joseph, Mo., were the hottest cities in the United States, with the mercury hovering around 96 degrees. Chicago ran a close second, with the thermometer registering 94.

Washington suffered its hottest day of the season and one heat stroke occurred. The maximum temperature at the weather bureau was 92, but the government street thermometer registered 100 degrees.

Four deaths by drowning and twelve heat prostrations, six of which may result fatally, were reported in Milwaukee after the hottest day of the season.

The D. A. R. chapter held the best meeting in its history Saturday afternoon at the home of Miss Allie Fraser when Miss Fraser and her cousin, Miss Brownie Toel, were the hostesses. After the ritual service, a program devoted entirely to the American flag was presented in celebration of the flag's natal day, June 14, 136 years ago. The rooms were decorated entirely with flags and each one present wore a small flag while several were attired in the colors of old glory. Mrs. Anderson Craig read a beautiful tribute to the flag; Mrs. F. M. Martin read an instructive paper on how the American flag came to be known as old glory; Miss Cecil Benight read a paper on the clean flag, in which attention was called to the fact that our flag is sometimes being used for advertising methods instead of being kept as a sacred emblem for our honor and devotion; Mrs. D. J. Thomas read the history of the American flag as it appeared in Friday's Democrat-Forum, and then sang the D. A. R. chapter anthem, "The Ode to the Flag." The program closed by all of the members singing "Red, White and Blue," "Star Spangled Banner," and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." There were three guests at this meeting, Mrs. M. A. Ummethum of Kansas City, who is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. E. G. Orear, Mrs. Glade Bradley of Grand Island, Nbr., the guest of her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. ## FATHERLAND IS CELEBRATING

Twenty-Fifth Anniversary of Accession of Kaiser Observed.

Berlin, June 16.—The twenty-fifth anniversary of the accession of William II. was quietly observed Sunday, as this marked the date also of the death of the emperor's father, Frederich III. The emperor and empress attended a memorial service in the morning in the Garrison church at Potsdam and later the emperor laid a wreath on his father's tomb.

The real jubilee began this morning with reveilles in the Schloss yard. Great crowds have gathered in Berlin and the congestion is beyond description. The police in charge of traffic find it impossible to keep the crowds of people and vehicles moving. Unter Den Linden, which has been brilliantly decorated, was so crowded that ingress from the Brandenburg and from the Schloss had to be prohibited.

ARREST FIVE PROFESSORS

Charged With Needless Cruelty in the Vivisection of Animals.

Philadelphia, June 16.—Warrants were issued for the arrest of five professors and surgeons of the medical department of the University of Pennsylvania on the charge of cruelty to animals in connection with the vivisection of dogs.

This is the second step in a campaign of the Women's Pennsylvania Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Recently Dr. J. E. Sweet of the university was arrested on a similar charge. The professors must appear before a police magistrate next Saturday.

John R. K. Scott, counsel for the women's society, said: "This proceeding is not based on vivisection of animals, but the needless cruelty and neglect of the animal after it has been submitted to experiments and operations."

TO PASS TARIFF BILL AND QUIT

Majority Leaders Ready to Rest With Passing Measure.

CURRENCY REFORM OPPOSEL

Growing Determination Shown to Wind Up Work of Session Without Action on Other Subjects—Wool and Sugar Fight Is Over.

Washington, June 16.—Developments of the last week at both ends of the capitol have indicated a growing determination on the part of Democratic leaders of congress to pass a tariff bill and wind up the work of the extra session without action upon currency reform or any other important subject.

The tariff revision bill is to be pushed to completion and laid before the Democrats of the senate in caucus before the end of this week. In the meantime, notwithstanding President Wilson's repeatedly expressed desire to see some positive action taken toward a reform of the nation's financial system, the controlling forces of the party in both houses are showing a disposition to defer action on monetary reform until the regular session opening next December.

While the senate currency committee took no definite action, many members, including influential Democrats, openly expressed the opinion that no currency law would be enacted at this session.

Bill Ready June 25.

The tariff is to come into the senate for the second stage of revision within ten days. The senate finance committee will complete work upon it early this week, and an immediate call will be issued for a Democratic caucus. It is believed the bill will be formally presented to the senate ready for deliberation in that body by June 25.

The fight over free wool and free sugar, so far as the Democrats are concerned, is believed to be over by the administration leaders. Senators Ransdell and Thornton of Louisiana and Walsh of Montana are the only Democratic senators, it is now believed, who will refrain from taking the caucus pledge. Even Senator Walsh might support the bill, some of his friends declare, after it is apparent that he has done everything in his power to have a small duty put on wool.

Party Majority in Sight.

Administration leaders in the senate are jubilant over the prospects of the tariff bill. They unhesitatingly asserted that the party was ready for harmonious action and predicted that a clear Democratic majority for the measure as it comes from the caucus will not be endangered.

Admitting that the situation in the senate was anything but satisfactory when the bill passed the house, the leaders now contend that prolonged preliminary consideration of the measure has brought about "an ironing out of the rough places" in the party alignment and that every development has been in favor of the administration policies.

The Democratic majority resumed consideration of subcommittee reports and Senator Simmons, the chairman, asserted that he intended to push the bill as rapidly as possible.

ATTEMPT TO BRIBE SENATOR

Said to Have Offered Works $1,000 for Job as Postmaster.

Santa Barbara, June C. Ericanbrach was arrested by a deputy United States marshal on a federal indictment charging him with an attempt to bribe Senator Works. Ericanbrach wanted the appointment of postmaster at Santa Barbara and is alleged to have written a letter to Senator Works offering $1,000 if the position were procured for him.

Ericanbrach was surprised when the warrant of arrest was served, charging an attempt to bribe a public officer. He admitted that he had written the letter to Senator Works, and added:

"But I did not know it was a crime to offer to pay a congressman for getting a political job. I thought that was the common practice."

BUSY MAN IS MR. BRYAN

Secretary of State Cancels Speaking Dates.

Washington, June 16.—A busy week in prospect has caused Secretary Bryan to cancel speaking engagements at Charlestown, Mass., tonight and at Lowell, Mass., June 19. The secretary will not leave Washington before July.

Among the important business to be crowded into the current week at the state department will be consideration of the Japanese situation, appointments of American ambassadors and ministers and consideration of foreign protests against certain administrative features of the pending tariff bill.

Urges Wilson Veto Sundry Civil Bill.

Washington, June 16.—John Kirby, Jr., for the national council of industrial defense, presented to President Wilson today a long petition urging him to veto the sundry civil appropriation bill because of the provision forbidding the use of certain of its funds for prosecution of labor unions and farmers' organizations under the Sherman law.

Mrs. A. Brennan and Mrs. Patrick Keane of Monmouth, Ill., who have been visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. Jerry Vaughn, left for their home Monday.

Mrs. H. H. Allen and daughter of Trenton arrived in the city Sunday to join Mr. Allen, who is employed with Gillam, Bellows & Pierce as an abstractor. They will make their home at 109 South Buchanan street.

Bridged Over

Enforced idleness may come without warning; the need of money usually occurs suddenly and without warning. The man with a bank account can pick and choose his work; money will bridge over a period of idleness and land you safe on the other side. The dollar you spend without a thought today might be a tremendous help tomorrow. We solicit small accounts.

Five dollars is plenty with which to open an account.
